Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Paul D. Momrowicz (Reg. 45,264) on June 08, 2004.

The application has been amended as follows:

Cancel claim 20 without prejudice.

Allowable Subject Matter

2. Claims 1-6, and 8-19 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: the references cited disclose first and second circuit boards, at least one brace, conductive leads, a housing, and some other claim elements. However, they do not disclose or render obvious in combination of a circuit package having the housing including an external surface that is flush with uncovered surfaces of each circuit board (claim 1), a plurality of components mounted on the first and second circuit boards in a region that is surrounded by the housing (claim 11), and a method of manufacturing a circuit package having a step of injecting a molding material between the first and second circuit boards to form a housing that substantially cover at least one surface of each of the circuit boards and leaves another surface uncovered to thereby expose at least one surface of the first and second circuit boards (claim 18).

Also, there is no suggest to modify the references to include these limitations.
